Restoration of Civil Rights DOES NOT give a convicted felon the right to purchase, own or have in possession a firearm or other weapon.

To the best of my knowledge the above information is correct.

Applicant Signature/Date

Notary Public or Probation & Parole Officer

- All persons who have been convicted of a felony in any court in this or any other state loses the right to vote and to hold public office. It is the prerogative of the Governor afforded him or her under the Kentucky Constitution to restore these rights.
- To be eligible for restoration of civil rights, applicants must have received a Final Discharge from parole or their sentence must have expired, whichever is applicable. Applicants must not be under felony indictment, must not have pending charges or owe any outstanding fines or restitution. A fee of $2.00 is required by the Secretary of State's Office. Please make checks or money orders payable to the Kentucky State Treasurer.

NOTE: This fee is no longer required.
- Registering to vote prior to receiving restoration of civil rights is a violation of the law. This violation may impose a maximum penalty of five (5) years in prison.
- If you were on Kentucky Probation, answer all questions except 9 & 11
- If you were on Kentucky Parole, answer all questions except 10 & 11
- If you had a Federal Conviction, answer all questions that apply to your probation or parole conviction.
- If you had an Out-of-State Conviction, answer questions that apply to your probation or parole conviction.
- For those convicted in a federal or out-of-state court, a copy of the conviction/judgment of final sentence, a letter from the former parole officer attesting to the final discharge, and proof of fines or restitution ordered must be attached to the application.
- If you do not answer all of the questions that apply to you, or do not sign your application with verification from a Probation and Parole officer or notary, your application will be returned to you for completion. Please assist us in processing your application as quickly as possible by completing the questions applicable to your case.
